PROJECTS

YimYum (Rails 5, Ruby, ReactJS, PostgreSQL, Redux, AWS)

Git | Live

Single-page web application with a TikTok inspired design where users can upload their satisfying food videos.

- Developed frontend to backend user authentication that uses BCrypt and Protected Routes to securely save encrypted passwords for optimal scalability.
- Integrated Redux with HTML5 media web components to create customized media playback for users.
- Connected the Rails back end to AWS S3 for media storage and organization while maintaining content security with AWS IAM.
- Produced custom UI using CSS and user-centered design techniques, improving usability and user retention

Trippt (MongoDB, Express, ReactJS, NodeJS,)

Git | Live

A single page application that allows users to add trips, select destinations, choose activities to their itinerary

- Integrated Tripadvisor API by utilizing asynchronous Axios calls to fetch real-time data to ensure reliable and up to date information for users.
- Utilized Git workflow in a team setting to cooperate efficiently and peer-reviewed pull requests to minimize merge conflicts.
- Employed CSS3 flexbox and z-index to build responsive carousels to enhance user experience.

HungryHungryHumans (JavaScript, HTML5, CSS3, Canvas)

Git | Live

A javascript time-based video game with increased difficulty with each level.

- Implemented custom movement and object collision functions to provide a physics engine that allows objects in the game to intuitively interact.
- Generated levels dynamically and varied the speed and difficulty of the game as the game continues in order to increase replayability.
